

Covedale Center for the Performing Arts Presents

The 9th Annual Sumer Arts & Crafts Fair

Calling all artists!

The Covedale Center for the Performing Arts, located at 4990 Glenway Avenue in Western Hills will present The Covedale Performing and Fine Arts Fair! A free-to-the-public event, to be held Saturday, August 21, 2010, 10:00 am to 4:00 pm. Musical artists of various styles will provide the atmosphere, while artists and crafts persons will display/sell their wares throughout the lobby, theatre auditorium on stage and outdoors.

The Covedale Center for the Performing Arts is seeking submissions by artists of various media to display in this setting. A registration form is on the other side of this information sheet.

1. Artists in every media are encouraged to display.
2. Artists are encouraged to sell their work at the Fair.
3. Artists will need to provide their own displays, booths or tables.
4. Limited electrical power will be available. Artists will be responsible to provide their own extension cords and low-wattage lights.
5. Artists must provide three (3) clear photos of the work to be displayed. These photos are not returnable.
6. Registration Forms are due by July 16, 2010.
7. Artists will be notified of their selection by August 1, 2010.
8. Space Assignment, Load-in and Load-out information will follow at time of acceptance.

The Covedale Performing and Fine Arts Fair will be growing in the years ahead. We hope you'll be part of this year's Fair and help us build the event for the future.

For more information, or to visit the Covedale Center for the Performing Arts, call (513) 241 – 6550 to arrange a time.
